

Offering spiritual care in later life

Do you care about the spiritual well-being of older people?

Anna Chaplaincy can equip you and your church for more effective ministry.

Giving older people the support they deserve

With a rapidly ageing population in the UK, ministry among older people has never been more crucial. Anna Chaplaincy enables individuals and their churches to develop a local ministry, as part of a supportive and respected national network.

In 2018, there were 1.6 million people aged 85 years and over in the UK; this is projected to nearly double to 3 million by 2043.

Equipping you for ministry

Perhaps you're someone who has been quietly supporting older people for years. Or you're a church leader with a vision for later-life ministry. Whatever your starting point, Anna Chaplaincy can help you and your church develop the confidence and skills to really make a difference.

As part of the ecumenical Anna Chaplaincy network, you'll have access to:

- a range of regular training opportunities
- the support of the Anna Chaplaincy for Older People leadership team at BRF Ministries
- a forum for discussing challenges and ideas
- a highly motivated, knowledgeable and experienced national network of people involved in the same work
- the Anna Chaplaincy Handbook with best-practice guidelines

'The Anna Chaplaincy resources are first-class; the best thing is meeting people involved in the same kind of work, sharing experiences, picking up new ideas.'

Anna Chaplain

'I believe God's Holy Spirit has got hold of this thing called Anna Chaplaincy. If the Holy Spirit has got hold of it, who are we to stand in its way?'

Revd Andrew Micklefield, Church of England General Synod, 2019

'I was so impressed with Anna Chaplaincy: what you have done is extraordinary'

Justin Welby, Archbishop of Canterbury

About Anna Chaplaincy for Older People

Anna Chaplaincy is one of the leading UK charities offering training and networking in older people's ministry. A ministry of BRF Ministries*, it enables local churches to offer high-quality spiritual care to older people in the community, who may be of strong, little or no faith.

Debbie Thrower, Anna Chaplaincy pioneer

Founded by former broadcaster Debbie Thrower, the growing Anna Chaplaincy network consists of Christian women and men, both those experienced in public ministry and those new to such roles, serving in a paid or voluntary capacity right across the UK. This is usually in addition to a wider team of volunteers, often known as Anna Friends, who support the Anna Chaplain in their local community.

The Anna Chaplaincy ministry team

Debbie Ducille, Anna Chaplaincy ministry lead, provides oversight for the team and works with church organisations across the UK, enabling Anna Chaplaincy to grow as a safe, effective, flourishing ministry in a variety of contexts.

‘We don't realise how much the older people we support will be an encouragement and a blessing to us.’

Anna Chaplain

Julia Burton-Jones, Anna Chaplaincy training and development lead, has worked for many years in dementia care and introduced Anna Chaplaincy in Kent and south-east London.

Marian Muskett, Anna Chaplaincy coordinator, is first point of contact for enquiries and facilitates the process for new Anna Chaplains and network support.

*Christian charity BRF Ministries is also home to Messy Church, Parenting for Faith and Living Faith. See brf.org.uk

Your Anna Chaplaincy journey starts here!

Anna Chaplaincy for Older People is for those who sense a calling to this ministry and the churches or Christian organisations who commit to supporting, mentoring and commissioning them.

Could you be an Anna Chaplain?

We'll help you explore your calling to this ministry of presence, provide training and ongoing development, welcome you to our supportive and generous network, and affirm you in your continuing ministry.

Interested in exploring Anna Chaplaincy for your church?

We'll support you as you recruit, manage and supervise your Anna Chaplain(s), helping you to nurture and develop them and as you provide accountability.
